Description

Hard times... from the news, sometimes, there is nothing to breathe... And so you want fresh air, to occupy your hands with something. And what could be better than tidying up your yard, sitting under a cherry tree and reading your favorite book, or eating fragrant strawberries from your own garden.

18 km from the center of Lviv, in the picturesque village of Vysloboky (a few hundred meters from the Semillon Club hotel and recreation complex), a duplex house is for sale, which is located on 20 acres of privatized land with an incredible garden. The area of the house is 385 m². So much, I agree with you. But the planning is such that it can be two completely isolated apartments for two families - relatives...

The first floor is fully renovated, residential with a chic fireplace hall. The basement, second floor, and attic are prepared for decoration: lighting, heating, plumbing, and underfloor heating have been installed in some places. There is a garage for two cars. Net sale.
